

TOWN OF POTSDAM PUBLIC HEARING MINUTES
PROPOSED LOCAL LAW 2022-5
JUNKYARD AND JUNK STORAGE MORATORIUM
NOVEMBER 10, 2022

Supervisor Carvill opened the Public Hearing to order at 6:33 PM on November 10, 2022. This Hearing was held in person at the Potsdam Town Hall, 18 Elm Street, Potsdam, NY and via ZOOM VIDEOCONFERENCING provisions as adopted by the Potsdam Town Board. The public had an opportunity to see and hear the meeting live via ZOOM videoconferencing.

PRESENT

Supervisor Ann Carvill
Councilperson Marty Miller
Councilperson Lynn Hall
Councilperson Allyssa Hardiman
Councilperson Toni Kennedy

ATTENDED VIA VIDEOCONFERENCE

ALSO, PRESENT

Peggy Brusso, Supervisor's Clerk
Supervisor
Cindy Goliber, Town Clerk
Frank Cappello, Attorney

PURPOSE:

Supervisor Carvill said this hearing is to take comment on the proposed Local Law 2022- 5 titled Junkyard and Junk Storage Moratorium. This law would extend the moratorium by 6 months on an new junkyard or junk storage permits, to allow time for the code to be reviewed and updated.

LEGAL NOTICE:

The legal notice was published in North Country This Week on October 28, 2022.

Supervisor Carvill asked Code Officer Murray how the code revisions were progressing. Mr. Murray said he is nearly done and then the proposed changes will be sent to Attorney Cappello for review and then Clerk Goliber will put it in local law form.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

There was no comment from the public.

MEETING CLOSED:

Supervisor Carvill closed the meeting at 6:34 PM.

Respectfully submitted:

Cindy Goliber
Town Clerk